

Anson Registrars to exhibit at Guernsey Funds Forum 2008

Anson Registrars Limited, Guernsey's locally-owned CREST registrar, has announced that it will be exhibiting at Guernsey Funds Forum 2008. The Forum, 'Fundamental solutions for a changing world', takes place at the Queen Elizabeth II Conference and Exhibition Centre in London, on 7 October 2008. The keynote speaker at the Forum will be Nicola Horlick, Chief Executive Officer of Bramdean Asset Management.

As well as an exhibition comprising the leading names from Guernsey's funds industry, the half-day event includes the sessions 'Guernsey – a growth industry' chaired by Nigel Farr, Partner at Herbert Smith; 'Listing and Liquidity' chaired by Tammy Menteshvili, Chief Executive of the Channel Islands Stock Exchange; and 'Private equity – looking forward' chaired by Veronica Eng of Permira.

Horace Camp, Executive Director of Anson Group Limited and Chairman of the GIFA Marketing Committee, said: "I am delighted that Anson Registrars will be participating fully in this extremely interesting and informative event. This Forum will address topical industry-wide issues and showcase Guernsey's wealth of expertise and its first-class funds infrastructure. As a CREST registrar and a provider of innovative solutions to clients and fund administrators alike, Anson Registrars is a major player in that infrastructure."
