

ANSON SPONSORS CD VERSION OF HISTORY OF GUERNSEY SHIPS

The Anson Group is a local Guernsey firm with a commitment to playing a positive role in the island's community.

A recent initiative was to fund the Guernsey Museum's creation of a research CD, detailing ships registered in Guernsey from 1786-1936. Anson was more than happy to underline its nautical connection and support this worthwhile project, which will be an invaluable research tool to historians

A reworked version of the late John W. Sarre's database, the compilation is the first and most comprehensive of its kind and is destined to become the authoritative source of reference on the subject.

A launch party, sponsored by Anson, was held at Castle Cornet in the presence of Sir de Vic Carey, the former Bailiff of Guernsey, who wrote the foreword for the book on which the CD is based.
